

AUSBREAKING SUPPORT PROGRAM (ASP) TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Definitions

AUSBreaking - the recognised national body for the Australian breaking community

WDSF - the recognised International Federation (IF) representing breaking as a sport in the Olympics, World DanceSport Federation

DSA - the recognised National Federation (NF) representing breaking as a sport in the Olympics, DanceSport Australia

IOC - the global organisation that conducts, promotes and regulates the modern Olympic Games and is the supreme authority of the Olympic Movement, International Olympic Committee

Olympic participant - a bgirl/bboy who participates in ABA ranked events and/or WDSF/IOC events as part of the Olympic Qualification System, for Olympic purposes

To be eligible for consideration of Australian delegation and/or support:

1. You must be registered for the ASP.
2. You must comply with the rules and requirements for each opportunity presented to be eligible for receipt of support
3. Olympic participants must meet the athlete eligibility requirements as seen in the Paris 2024 Qualification System for Breaking

You may register for the ASP on ausbreak.org.

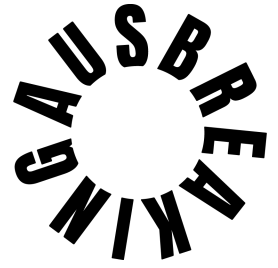

For more information on the ASP and Olympic Qualification System, please view the below documents on ausbreak.org.

*AUSBreaking Support Program (ASP) Information

*WDSF/IOC Paris 2024 Olympic Qualification System

*WDSF Olympic Qualification System

Note. The above terms and conditions are subject. AUSBreaking reserves the right to at any time without prior notice, amend, change, add, delete and correct these terms and conditions, including providing new or additional terms and conditions to this Agreement. Such modifications and additional terms and conditions will be effective immediately and your continued agreement will be deemed accepted hereof. You will be notified of any changes made once confirmed.