

AUSBREAKING

National Ranking System (NRS) Formerly Rankings and Ratings Committee (RARC)

Rules and Regulations Version 2.0 January 2023

AUSBreaking member responsible for the NRS: Stephen Gow

This document details the changes approved by AUSBreaking during the October 2022 general meeting whereby the rating of events will no longer exist, reforming the 'Rankings and Ratings Committee' to the National Ranking System (hereafter referred to as the NRS) overseen and regulated by an AUSBreaking member mentioned above reporting directly to the AUSBreaking executive committee.

These changes affect the ratings of competition for the purposes of awarding points towards the NRS, effective January 1st, 2023, only official AUSBreaking 'Battle Series' competitions will award points to competitors that will be used for the NRS. The aim of this change helps to maintain a level of consistency regarding competition quality & integrity. Therefore, only the four AUSBreaking 'Battle Series' events of the year will be used to determine NRS. With an expectation that where possible at least one AUSBreaking 'Battle Series' event competition will be held outside NSW with a preference for two, to the discretion of the AUSBreaking.

Rankings

Competitors will be awarded points for where they finish in a 'Battle Series' competition as follows:

Finishing place	Points
Winner	200
Finalist	120
Top 4	72
Top 8	36
Top 16	18
Top 32	9

Process

Ranking: For any breaker to be ranked they must first fill out the online form found on the AUSBreaking website. Once confirmed they must ensure they use the correct name for competitions to ensure points are allocated accordingly.

Arbitration

As written in the NRS mandate:

In the event a member of AUSBreaking or Australian breaking community or public raise an issue:

- Complaint or
- Contest a ruling/decision by the NRS or AUSBreaking executive committee with regards to national ranking

The first point of contact in the process of arbitration will be the NRS itself. Wherein the NRS must address the issue within thirty (30) days of it being received, should the NRS and the party who raised the issue not reach an agreed solution the NRS will forward the issue onto the AUSBreaking executive committee. The executive committee will then make a ruling through majority vote within thirty (30) days of notification and the NRS will carry out the decision and any changes to the rating or rankings as a result. Once an issue has been decided upon and ruled it cannot be appealed unless new evidence has emerged or circumstances involving the issue have changed enough to warrant the NRS to reopen the issue; this is at the discretion of the NRS.
